

Angel child, Dragon Child

By Michele Maria Surat

This is the story of a refugee girl who emigrates half-way around the world. She is uncomfortable in her new American School. She gets into a fight with a boy in her class. With the help of her principal and their teacher, the two not only solve the problem they are having, but ultimately, the whole school collaborate to raise money to bring her mother to America.

Value or skill:

Helping others