

A Chair for My Mother

By Vera B. Williams

A little girl, her mother and her grandmother lose all their possessions to a fire. Their neighbors help out the family, and the tree women who lost their possessions to the fire pull together to save enough money to buy furniture.

Value or skill:

Working together

Sharing